MSCC STUDENTS RECYCLING BAGS – Members of the Phi Theta Kappa International Honor Society at Mid-South Community College have been collecting recyclable plastic bags to contribute to environmental efforts in the area. Students recently delivered the bags to Wal-Mart which turns the recyclable material into patio furniture and chairs at its corporate headquarters. Pictured, from left, include Lawrence WatSon, chapter co-advisor Logan Oliver, Phi Theta Kappa President Laura Mason, PTK Public Relations Officer Susie Jackson, PTK Vice President Heather Soto, Annette McCollum, Katie Hutton, and Pat G. Crume.
